

Amphibians & Reptiles of the Hamilton- Trenton – Bordentown marsh, Including Adjacent Uplands

Amphibians (11 species; 5 additional historical species considered extirpated) [photo: box turtle]

- ___ Redback Salamander
- ___ American Toad
- ___ Fowler’s Toad
- ___ Northern Spring Peeper
- ___ Northern Gray Tree Frog
- ___ New Jersey Chorus Frog
- ___ Bullfrog
- ___ Green Frog
- ___ Southern Leopard Frog
- ___ Northern Cricket Frog
- ___ Pickerel Frog
- ___ Wood Frog

Historical Amphibians

- Northern Dusky Salamander
- Red-backed Salamander
- Northern Red Salamander
- Northern Two-lined Salamander
- Eastern Spade-foot Toad

Reptiles (12 species; 9 historical species considered extirpated) [photos boxturtle, snake]

- ___ Common Snapping Turtle
- ___ Stinkpot
- ___ Eastern Box Turtle
- ___ Common Map Turtle (rare in NJ)
- ___ Red-bellied Turtle
- ___ Red-eared Turtle
- ___ Eastern Painted Turtle
- ___ Northern Water Snake
- ___ Northern Brown Snake
- ___ Eastern Garter Snake
- ___ Eastern Ribbon Snake
- ___ Black Rat Snake

Box turtle (Photo M.A. Leck©)

Historical reptiles

- Eastern Mud Turtle
- Spotted Turtle
- Bog Turtle
- Eastern Hognose Snake
- Northern Ringneck Snake
- Eastern Worm snake
- Northern Black Racer
- Smooth Green Snake
- Eastern Milk Snake